ALL Candidates for admission must present satisfactory testimonials of good moral character; and, if from other Colleges, of unexceptionable standing.

Candidates for the Freshman Class are examined in the following books.

GREEK.

Xenophon's Anabasis, Five Books; Homer's Iliad, Four Books;* Greek Grammar, including Prosody.

LATIN.

The whole of Virgil; Cicero's Select Orations; Sallust; Andrews and Stoddard's Latin Grammar, including Prosody: Writing Latin.

MATHEMATICS.

Arithmetic; Chase's Algebra, through Equations of the First Degree.

ENGLISH.

English Grammar; Ancient and Modern Geography.

Candidates for advanced standing, in addition to the above studies, are examined in the studies that have been pursued by the class which they propose to enter, or in others equivalent to them.

The times for examination are the Tuesday before Commencement, and the close of the vacation immediately following.

Persons who desire to attend the lectures and recitations of particular departments only, may have that privilege—provided, they are prepared to enter upon the studies of such departments, and become subject to the laws of the College, as other students, so far as may be designated by the Faculty.

Note. It is very important that the candidates for admission should be thoroughly prepared, particularly in elementary knowledge. The deficiency of many in Greek, Latin, and English Grammar, in Prosody, Latin Composition, Arithmetic, and Geography, makes it necessary to require especial attention to these branches of the preparatory course.

* Felton's Greek Reader is accepted as an equivalent to these requisitions in Greek; or Jacobs', Colton's, or Spencer's Greek Reader, with the Four Gospels.

Each Examination is conducted in the presence, and under the direction of a committee of gentlemen of education, invited by the Faculty to attend for that purpose. The committee are expected, at the close of the examination, to express their judgment upon the merits of each student, and to recommend that he be advanced or degraded, as in their opinion he may deserve.

The following gentlemen were the Committee for the Academical year 1850-1:—

Rev. Jonas De Forest Richards, Charlestown.

Cyrus Baldwin, A. M., Meriden.

Rev. Silas Aiken, Rutland, Vt.

Hon. William Plumer, Epping.

LIBRARIES.

There are three Libraries accessible to the students beside the Medical Library, and the Library of the Northern Academy of Arts and Sciences. An annual appropriation is made for the increase of the College Library. The Libraries of the two Literary Societies are increased by annual donations from the members of each.

The number of books in the different Libraries connected with the College, is as follows:—

College Library, (exclusive of pamphlets) about	6,700
Social Friends' Library, - - - -	7,000
United Fraternity's Library, - - -	6,900
Society of Inquiry's Library, - - -	500
Medical Library, about - - - -	1,200
Library of the Northern Academy, about -	1,300
<hr/>
Total, - - - - -	23,600

The Library last mentioned contains, besides bound volumes, a large number of newspapers and pamphlets, carefully arranged.

APPARATUS AND CABINET.

In addition to the usual apparatus for illustrating the several branches of Physical Science, the College is furnished with the best instruments now used in practical Surveying and Engineering.

The large Telescope recently purchased is mounted in a temporary building, until means can be procured for the erection of a permanent Observatory.

The Instrument was manufactured at Munich, by Merz & Mahler, and is like the Refractors of the Cambridge and Cincinnati Observatories, being rather more than half the size of the latter, and just three-sevenths of that of the former. It has an object glass with a clear aperture of six and four-tenths inches, and a focal length of eight feet seven inches; and is furnished with eighteen eye-glasses of various kinds, magnifying from thirty-six to nine hundred and forty times. It has two Micrometers, a Double Ring, and Filar Position; the latter having eleven fixed, and two movable Spider Lines, illuminated either in a dark or a bright field, at the pleasure of the observer. It is mounted Equatorially, with circles of thirteen and ten inches diameter, graduated on silver, so as to read, in Declination, to ten seconds of arc, and in Right Ascension, to four seconds of time. The whole is so nicely balanced on polished friction rollers, that the action of a delicate clock, with a revolving pendulum, carries the Telescope with a smooth and equable movement, in exact accordance with the apparent motion of a star. The building also contains an Astronomical Clock, by Fraunhofer, and a small Altitude and Azimuth Instrument, which, for the present, is used as a Transit Circle.

The Hall Cabinet, presented by the late Prof. Frederick Hall, contains a large collection of specimens of rocks, minerals and fossils, both American and foreign, sufficient for extensive illustration in Mineralogy and Geology.

The instruction in Geology is aided by a series of well-executed drawings, on a large scale.

The Chemical Laboratory is amply furnished with Apparatus and Chemicals for the illustration of the Lectures in that Department.

FUNDS FOR THE ASSISTANCE OF INDIGENT STUDENTS.

Indigent students, belonging to New Hampshire, are assisted, in respect to tuition, by funds derived from the income of certain lands granted by the State.

Students, preparing for the Ministry, receive appropriations from funds given for their particular benefit.

These several funds now yield an income of about seven hundred dollars, which is distributed according to the necessities of students, in sums varying from twelve to thirty dollars.

RESIDENT GRADUATES.

Graduates of this or other Colleges, desirous of pursuing their studies in Hanover, are allowed, as Resident Graduates, to attend the Public Lectures of the College, and to use the Library and Scientific Collections, subject to such rules as the Faculty may establish.

DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTS.

The degree of Master of Arts is conferred, in course, on every Bachelor of three years' standing, on the payment of the usual fee. Graduates of longer standing may have the Master's degree upon the same condition. The fee is five dollars, payable in advance. Application should be made to the President or to the Treasurer as early as the day before Commencement.

CHANDLER SCHOOL OF SCIENCE AND THE ARTS.

THIS department of instruction was constituted by a resolution of the Trustees, at their last annual meeting, in acceptance of the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars. bequeathed to them, in trust, by Abiel Chandler, Esq., late of Walpole, N. H., and formerly of Boston, Ms., for that purpose.

Mr. Chandler gives and devises the above named sum to the 'Trustees of the College " to carefully and prudently invest or fund the principal sum, and faithfully apply and appropriate the income and interest thereof for the establishment and support of a permanent department or school of instruction in the College, in the practical and useful arts of life, comprised chiefly in the branches of Mechanics and Civil Engineering, the Invention and Manufacture of Machinery, Carpentry, Masonry, Architecture, and Drawing, the Investigation of the Properties and Uses of the Materials employed in the Arts, the Modern Languages, and English Literature, together with Book-keeping, and such other branches of knowledge as may best qualify young persons for the duties and employments of active life."

Of this munificent foundation Mr. Chandler by his Will constituted a perpetual Board of Visitors, with powers accurately defined, and appointed his esteemed friends John J. Dixwell and Francis B. Hayes, Esquires, both of Boston, " to be the first Board."

The Trustees will proceed to organize the School, agreeably to the design of its benevolent and patriotic founder, with the least possible delay. Seasonable notice will be given of its opening, and of the subjects, scheme, and times of instruction, when the same shall have been determined by the Trustees.
